

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

InterArc Expands Global Reach

Miami, Florida – September 7, 2010

Interline Archeology, Inc. dba InterArc, and Axeitalia, have entered into a strategic alliance and joint venture agreement designed to maximize synergies between the two companies. The agreement will target joint marketing and operations opportunities for the airline revenue accounting and interline recovery services offered by each company. As part of the agreement, InterArc will operate a new Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) office in Rome, Italy to better service the demands of its expanding roster of airline clients.

InterArc CEO, Guy R. Booth commented "We are delighted to make this announcement and are confident this new alliance with Axeitalia will significantly strengthen our mutual ability to serve the aviation industry in our areas of expertise".

About Axeitalia:

Formed in 2007 by Vittorio Mazza, former CFO of Alitalia, and headquartered in Rome, Italy, Axeitalia provides a complete array of services in the airline financial and accounting area.

About InterArc

InterArc provides a revenue protection service assisting airlines to improve cash flow and collection from interline billings. InterArc fees are success based and offers no up-front costs to airline clients.

InterArc provides in-house web-technology for clients to view revenue protection in realtime utilizing specially trained analyst in the discovery of bottom-line income.

InterArc is an IATA Clearing House member minimizing the risk-factor to collect its success fees. InterArc is also an IATA Strategic Partner.

For further information on InterArc, please visit www.interlinearc.com

Contact:

John H. Jackson

CMO, AvGroup

+1 305 870 7575

john.jackson@interlinearc.com