AvGroup Signs Strategic Alliance with NLG Holdings

Miami, FL. - May 21, 2009

AvGroup CEO, Guy R. Booth has announced the signing of a strategic alliance with NLG Holdings (Network Leading Group) of Lima, Peru. The alliance is designed to pave the way for expanded services to clients of both companies and the combination of the two companies will provide the necessary staying power to grow in this very competitive market.

For the past several years, AvGroup has been providing interline billing audit services identifying over-billings on behalf of airline clients' interline partners. AvGroup has slowly carved-out a niche in this business where only two companies provided the service in the industry. Under the new agreement with NLG Holdings, AvGroup will be able to provide a better service on behalf of its airline clients taking advantage of the NLG expertise and resources.

Vilma Schenone, the principal at NLG Holdings, has many years of experience in the airline industry in the revenue enhancement and marketing areas. Vilma's vision will bring value-added insight to the alliance. NLG Holdings offers marketing and representation services to airlines, hotels as well as ancillary products and services for the travel industry, owns and operates a chain of boutique hotels and airport lounges.

AvGroup, based in Miami, Florida, provides B2B services and expertise, information and intelligence, web-technological solutions, and, B2C relationship management in four unique and diversified divisions for the commercial aviation business. AvGroup is an IATA Strategic Partner, a member of the IATA Clearing House, a member of the Latin American and Caribbean Air Transport Association (ALTA), and a member of the Greater Miami Aviation Association (GMAA).
